The Outer Eastern Local Learning & Employment Network (OELLEN) is an organisation set up to provide strategic planning and decision making forum for training, education and employment in Melbourne's Outer East.

"To facilitate and advocate for the engagement and building of community to provide a cohesive framework for the transition to employment and effective community participation in the Outer East".

OELLEN covers the local government areas of the City of Knox, the City of Maroondah and Shire of Yarra Ranges. OELLEN is currently overseen by a Board of Directors which is representative of the region, and reports directly to government through the newly formed Victorian Learning and Employment Skills Commission (VLESC).
